

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Noted Author, Spiritual Counselor to host Greenville Workshop

Spiritualist, author, counselor, teacher - Gloria Karpinski has many titles. It's no surprise, with 20 years of experience exploring our spiritual origins. Called by many a "teacher's teacher," Karpinski's latest book, Barefoot on Holy Ground, was named by Amazon.com as the Best of 2001.

A resident of Winston-Salem, N.C., Karpinski will present a weekend workshop and lecture in Greenville from June 20-22. Hosted by the City of Greenville Parks and Recreation Department, the lecture will be from 7:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Friday. The workshop will be from 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday, June 21, and continue from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday, June 22. All events will be held at Cleveland Park Center. The cost is $25 for the Friday evening lecture, and $90 for the workshop ($95 after June 13). Pre-registration is required by calling 864-467-6627.

Karpinski's books and teachings, which draw from many faiths, are filled with practical advice to help people apply spiritual principles to their everyday lives. Her Friday evening lecture, "Poise in Chaos," addresses the radical changes underway in our society. Karpinski offers strategies to deal with change peacefully.

The weekend workshop, "Toward Wholeness: the Emerging Feminine," explores the absence of feminine energy in our historical spiritual literature. Karpinski will look at means of restoring the feminine within our society and our personal lives.

